

FREE TAX PREP SERVICES

Pocono Mountains United Way provides free basic income tax return preparation for qualified* low-to-moderate income and elderly taxpayers by APPOINTMENT beginning February 6, 2024. Walk-ins will not be served.

Sponsored by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), VITA provides free income tax preparation assistance to individuals and families with a household income of less than $65,000 a year. VITA's volunteers are trained and certified by the IRS to help taxpayers maximize their potential tax returns by ensuring all of the tax credits and deductions for which they qualify are claimed.

For more information about the VITA program and to find the "What to Bring Checklist" before your appointment go to www.poconounitedway.org/vita.

NOTE: BOTH THE TAXPAYER AND SPOUSE MUST COME TO THE APPOINTMENT IF FILING A JOINT RETURN.

*Potential clients must be screened for eligibility and to set up an appointment. A Social Security Number or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number is required for this service.

For taxpayers who prefer to file their own returns, United Way has partnered nationally with H&R Block to offer MyFreeTaxes. The online self-prep tool allows taxpayers to prepare and file their own federal and state taxes for free online using Premium H&R Block Software. Online tax preparers can access the program at www.unitedway.org/myfreetaxes.
